THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 2, 1856.

for secresy and deception. It fears open in the world." No one will be at a loss tend to send to all the various Black Re- Journal represents them to be, yet the eager-

To prove that the Democracy have no se- by its own political confederates, is a feature cret or unjust designs in the coming election, of the transaction which is not so unquestionwe give the FREMONT circular just as it is .- able. Admit that this family were the vic-We desire that every Democrat should read tims of Burono's thieves, and that they had it, every honest man, whatever may be his been expelled from the Territory because himself of the character of the party which LANE-what does it prove? Does it prove gard to tickets-"they ought to be printed on men," or that Mr. Buchanan or his friends paper of the same appearance and color used by are responsible for it? Not at all. If so, why the necessity of this trickery?

a suggestion to the FREMONT Clubs and com- philanthropist of the Journal. mittees throughout the State to make arrange- If the border ruffians have been guilty of publicanism hopes to triumph.

wicked schemes must be foiled. The good barians. will improve upon.

speeches in every township in the State the MONT and FREMONT men responsible in the put into the ballot box-vote early-see that ling, they become like a two edged sword, our friends go to the polls-and let no man which cuts both ways. be intimidated from voting by threats of any | We do not feel content, however, to thus kind. In a word "we must all work," and if divide party responsibility with our oppoevery Democrat does his duty a triumph nents. We charge upon them that THEY, awaits us that will give a final quietus to and THEY ALONE, are directly responsible for black republicanism. But read and profit by all the outrages that have occurred in Kansas great as possible we must all work.

3d. Let tickets be printed and sent into every and put into the right hands. They ought to be Purther Evidence of Abolition Fraud car of truth has time to correct and set right Township several days previous to the election, printed on paper of the same appearance and color used by the "Old Liners."

tily upon the FILLMORE men to assist in de- informed of the fact that they have raised are ready to apply the torch that would desa a reason why they should do so, that rangements to import great numbers of fraud- sacrifices, blood and patriotism of the Men State. entire South to FILLMORE. By what process Wayne and Henry. This system of pipe lust for place and the spoils of office. of reasoning the Tribune arrives at a conclu- laying is a favorite one with these fusionists. sion so strange and illogical, is, to us, inex- They do these dirty things, and then turn riotic sentiments of Governor Waight to the bears upon its face the most palpable evi-

in this State. The Tribune itself would county Central Democratic Committee. hardly contend, we think, that such an inference would be warranted by the facts .- fraudulent voters, if they attempt to vote in However clearly the defeat of WILLARD this county, and it should be the careful duty might point to the defeat of BUCHARAN in of every Democrat to watch and mark well the State, it could not, by any possibility, be the appearance of strange-faced men who of the Tribune does. So far as the State cute them at once, and challenge every the story of a recent occurrence at Bourbon, States. When it is one to four and a half, election can serve as a guide to the result doubtful or unknown person who presents a Marshall County, which was retailed by the there certainly must be fraud somewhere .in November, it will be favorable either to vote. tober that the State of Indiana will go for FREMONT in November, will they therefore drop Buchanan and go for FREMONT ?- State Central Committee, Indianapolis: What reason can the Tribune give why they GENTS :- I learn this morning, from should do so? If it can give no good reasource in which I have implicit reliance, that son for such a change, under such circumstances, what force is there in the argument have, or are now raising a large amount of money for the purpose of importing votes that the FILLMORE men should unite with into this Congressional district, and into yours, the abolitionists to defeat WILLARD?

The Tribune may be very anxious to defeat | crush us out in this county, and elect Senator, WILLARD and to elect Morron. It may give Representative, and the whole Republican ticket. Now, Gents-I am not easily alarmreasons for that anxiety, which are perfectly ed, but all attending circumstances prove to satisfactory to itself-but when it seeks to me, clearly, that this report is well founded call in the support of the FILLMORE men as and I believe every word of it to be true. a party, under the pretence that Willard's do not pretend to say to you how to prevent creants," who thirsted for the pretence that Willard's this, but this much I do say, don't neglect able and pious citizens. defeat will give the entire vote of the South this warning, but put yourselves on your to FILLMORE for President, it openly stulti- guard against this villainous scheme. fies itself, and insults the common sense of I repeat to you, most decidedly, that my every man who knows enough to go to the proceedings prudent man, cannot disregard, and I feel it at Bourbon, is a willful and unmitigated polls and vote.

it will be remembered, of the gentleman 150 votes. whose death at the hands of Casey called' for a second reorganization of the San Francisco Vigilance Committee. After Mr. K.'s death, contributions were made in that city norning portrays the sufferings of a family who had moved to Kansas from Kentucky, Black Republicanism has a strong affinity men, and robbed of every dollar they had daylight, a clear field and a fair fight, and its discover the motive of the Journal in seeking hope for success rests upon duplicity, trickery by bold assumption and unscrupulous distorand corruption. In accordance with their tion, to weave a story that shall answer a spesystem of tactics, the FREMONT State Central cific purpose. The misery and destitution of Committee have had printed a circular, a true the returning emigrants and the scenes which copy of which is annexed, which they in- transpired at the depot, may be all that the publican clubs and committees throughout ness with which that print seeks to turn to the State, suggesting a plan of operations for political account individual suffering resulting directly from a state of things brought about predilections, and then judge for they would not take arms against the traitor opposes us. Look at the instructions in re- that they were driven out by "the Buchanan the Old Liners." Why the necessity of this there is a long list of accounts of that kind to instruction all over the State, unless duplicity be settled between the "Buchanan men" and and fraud are intended? If they had any the "FREMONT men," in which the latter hope of carrying the election by fair means, might find a larger balance against them, than they would be willing to shoulder. Free-

A Gun from the "Pocket." Inst., which resulted in the success of the entire Demecratic ticket.

The Farmont State Committee are not State men are not the only ones who have advised that the 'Old liners' are making efforts been driven out of Kansas after having been to bring voters from Kentucky and adjoining robbed of every dollar they had in the world. States for the purpose of carrying the State Pro-slavery men, women and children, by election." It is only by importing votes that scores and hundreds have met the same black republicanism can succeed in this State. fate of the poor family whose sufferings so And this caution to watch Old liners is simply justly excite the sympathy of the benevolent the Black Republican party had a represenments in time to import votes. It is by this acts which have reduced free State emigrants fraud and by the removal of votes from one to the last extreme of destitution and misery, part of the State to the other, that black re- like that of poor RITCHIE and his family, so have Abolition ruffians been guilty of equal We trust every Democrat in the State will enormities towards the pro-slavery emigrants be on his guard. From this time out there of Kansas. Robbery, outrage and murder, must be unceasing vigilance and activity .- have been perpetrated on both sides, to an The enemy must be watched and all their extent that would disgrace a nation of bar-advice in this circular we hope our friends By the same rule of logic that the Journal Let there be Democratic meetings and responsible in one case, it must make FREweek previous to the election. See the doubtful, reason with them and give them doubtful, reason with them and give them turn these occurrences into party account, it from one who now does and who has for many a really from me, but for the fact that the all that have ever occurred in that Territory. GENTLEMEN: — That the opposition to the opposition to the beyond all reasonable doubt. The only question is as to the majority. That it may be as to thwart the principle of self-government as recognized by that act, and to force the Anxiety for complete and overwhelming as recognized by that act, and to force the success is our spology for making the following people of the Territory into a line of policy suggestions, which we trust will meet your prescribed for them by mischievous politicians and meddlesome outsiders. Had the let meetings be held in at least every township Abolition agitators paid due regard to the in your county. Let every man who can make speeches do it. Let documents be put in the wise and salutary injunction, "MIND YOUR hands of the doubtful, who will agree to read OWN BUSINESS, AND LET OTHER PEOPLES' trolling our elections. Let no illegal vote be put marked the course of Kansas, had she, like and Corruption.

4th. See that our friends go early to the polls the Secret Circular of the Indianapolis Jun- the Black Republican campaign programme. This done and an unparelleled triumph will to counterfeit Democratic tickets as to color not only pray for, but instigate and force on The New Albany Tribune calls lus- ized voters, with their tickets; we are now perate leaders in the Fremont movement To produce such a total change from Bu- We have only to say in regard to the charac- at heart the best interests of the country. CHANAN to FILLMORE, in the South, it would ter of Mr. HEBBIN, who has written the folbe necessary to convince Southern people lowing letter, that he is a gentleman of the defeat of WILLARD indicated the highest standing in society, is Clerk of the success of FILLMORE instead of FREMONT, county of Rush, and chairman of the Rush

Every legal attention will be paid to these

BUCHANAN or FREMONT. If the people in We shall be fully prepared to take care of the South are satisfied from the result in Oc- such fellows in this county, and in this city, of the Old Line instigators and abetters. The thousand majority, and yet he is beaten RUSHVILLE, Sept. 26, 1856. from the Burnt District. They say they will

The Democratic Party. The following tribute from a neutral pa-

A charter election was held in Washing-ton, Daviess county, in this State, on the 17th tate Interference-The Letter of the State Officers of Michigan to and Gov.

Wright's Response. clusively that that party are prepared to go cratic voters into the support of Abolitionism ure their unboly purposes. cost of disturbing the peace, harmony and se- bond followers might murder rob and pluncurity of the whole nation.

reme sensitiveness, than the assembling of a Legislature of a State, occupying the commanding position in the nation that Indiana does, for the purpose of interfering in the affairs of Kansas by Legislative action, appropriating the resources of the State to send voters to Kansas-a species of Legislative pipe laying-to control its elections? this is the action that these Michigan men ask of our Executive and of the Legislature of the State-a request which, without doubt, would have been complied with, if tative for Chief Magistrate. But happily it is not so, and this dangerous experiment is saved to the State and nation.

We hope every citizen of Indiana, every orthern man, will read the able, patriotic convincing arguments of Governor WRIGHT upon the request made of him, and upon the questions connected therewith .-We regard it as conclusive upon the duty of the citizens of not only the free States, but of every State of the confederacy, north and outh. It reviews the whole ground in controversy and arrives at conclusions, wise, just and satisfactory. And the document will have a commanding influence, as it should years occupied the high position of Governor that reason. But these objections will loose the Sentinel of yester-their force as they will be made by men, and their force as they will be made by men, and their force as they will be made by men, and their citizens, and the most offensive acts, upon the part of citizens of the States and their citizens, and the most offensive acts, upon the part of citizens of the States and their citizens, and the most offensive acts, upon the part of citizens of the States and their citizens are the sentinel of yester-their blood thirsty appetites upon the nearthead against the unconstitutional registration of the rights of the States and their citizens, and the most offensive acts, upon the part of citizens of the states and their citizens are the sentinel of yester-their blood thirsty appetites upon the nearthead against the unconstitutional registration of the rights of the States and their citizens, and the most offensive acts, upon the part of citizens of the states and their citizens are the sentinel of yester-their blood thirsty appetites upon the nearthead against the unconstitutional registration of the rights of the states and their citizens are the sentinel of yester-their blood thirsty appetites upon the nearthead against the unconstitution of the rights of the states and their citizens are the sentinel of yester-their blood thirsty appetites upon the nearthead against the unconstitution of the rights of the states are the sentinel of yester-their blood thirsty appetites upon the part of the states are the sentinel of yester-their blood thirsty appetites upon the part of the states are the states are the sentinel of yester-their blood thirsty appetites upon the part of the states are the states and their citizens are the states are by papers like the Indiana Journal, who have been calling upon the Governor, like these Michigan men, to interfere in his official capacity in the affairs of Kansas. And we think that the reasons given by the Governor their requests, will stop these calls and clam-Kansas affairs, early in the campaign, made Ledger's request. a strong impression upon the public mind, and we predict for the present communication a wider and deeper influence. In this connection it may be not amiss to LANE and his Black Republican followers and tools in Kansas, are spread like wildfire by the telegraph wires at stated and well designed periods. These reports of actual or imaginary and magnified troubles in that pending State elections, and before the slow In addition to the proofs which we find in species of duplicity and tactics are a part of to, in which they are advising their followers War in Kansas, bloodshed, and strife they and paper, with a view to cheat our natural- for mere partizan purposes. Yes, these des-

But enough. We again commend the patround and charge them upon the Democracy. careful consideration of every man who has dence of fraud and corruption. In round

> "Oh Shame, Where is Thy Blush!" If the people of this State do not become cedent. Not only are they treated to "Kancreants," who thirsted for the blood of peace. frauds .- Cincinnati Enquirer.

It is only necessary for us to say that a full and thorough investigation of the facts show that the Abolition account of the proceedings OTJAMES KING, of William, is the name from this, our county looks well, and I hon-inflicted, and the real origin of the disturestly believe we have a clear majority of over bance as stated in the Laporte Times, are as hostility, well organized and led by exalted work before the election, or so intimidate them favor of extending slavery!

That Secret Abolition Circular.

There is every evidence that the FREcharacter. If any evidence is needed to tem. To understand said circular more per- guardians of the Democracy of Indiana. atisfy the minds of the heretofore doubtful feetly, it is only necessary to point out its to the revolutionary designs of the Fre- authors and publishers-to mark its paternont party, that document gives the highest nity, to show who are the men that are enand most satisfactory proof. It shows con- deavouring to deceive and entrap demoto the extent of civil and fraternal war to se- This infamous circular, bearing fraud upon Fortunate indeed is it that we have an and M'NEELY, taken to the Central Bank. Executive Magistrate who is beyond the owned by John D. Defrees and franked offuence of the abettors of these mad over the county by Lucian Barrour, the schemes. Was the case reversed at the Abolition member of Congress from this dispresent time-if an Abolitionist stood in the trict. This labor of our Congressman is in array against the Democracy of Indiana long ly few ambitious and reckless men interestposition of Governor WRIGHT, as has been the accordance with his efforts in Congress to before either Buchanan or Fremont were ed in the extension of Slavery, and especially use in Winconsin, the Legislature of the withold the pay of the United States army State would have been convened, not only at a so that it would have to be dishanded large expence to the people, but at the greater order that JIM LANE and his band of vaga- phia platforms were constructed—the idea der the people of the Territory of Kansas, What could be more alarming in the pre- Why did this honest committee or its ent excited state of the publicmind, in its ex- chairman, Mr. Devages, direct their that tickpearance and color used by the " Old Liners?" Was it that they might the more easily impose them upon unsuspecting Democrats as Democratic tickets, because they resemble in paper and color the genuine democratic ticket? Or do they expect to bribe and corrupt a certain class of voters to vote their ticket, in a sly deceitful manner, and to carry out the deceit upon their Democratic friends by voting such a ticket as cannot be distinguished by its PAPER or COLOE? Or, was it for the more nefarious purpose of perpetrating a fraud upon the ballot-box, by changing the tickets eyes upon the secret order of fraud and last farthing, because they would not take wish me to consider the views you express, ing, is, that they justified the States in re- has already broken out. And yet this crisis date on the "People's Ticket" who will sup-

This last supposition is fairly inferable difficult to detect the change.

There may be good policy in this refusal and yet it shows the subserviency of the exacting allies, the Abolitionists. They know add, that the reports of wars and rumors of that if they were to divulge the name of wars, of strife and bloodshed, caused by any candidate who had given even cause for they are so fortunate as to succeed. A triumph of the "People's Ticket" in this State, would be to all intents and purpos es an Abolition victory, and would be so regarded by the party leaders throughout the To the Voters of the Fifth Judicial although great excitement existed, and it its duties. It is respectfully requested that tience and forbearance that is beyond all pre- five per cent in four years. This is a monoccasionally dished up that staggers the believe that such a proportion can honestly aforesaid. credulity of the most inveterate lover of the exist? One voter to six or seven of the Mr. New is well qualified professionally, The Democrats polled more votes for their abolition press, far and near, with all the Governor this year than they did for Pierce cratic Committee of Johnson County. usual accompaniments of execration and abuse for President in 1852, when he had eight instigating and urging on the "savage mis- were beaten by the most gross and glaring on the occasion of his sudden death.

can meeting headed, "The Real Issue, Free- LORENZO B. SHEPARD, of that city dom or Slavery." That is the issue that the Democracy in the House of Representatives the domestics became alarmed, and looking into prudent man, cannot disregard, and I feel it my duty to advise you without delay. Aside for this, our county looks well, and I honestly believe we have a clear majority of over 150 votes. Yours, GEO. HEBBIN, Chairman Cev. Com. of Rushville.

Chairman Cev. Com. of Rushville.

The whole extent of the injuries and looking into discovered him lying on the edge of the bath, apparently insensible with his head hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath, apparently insensible with his head hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath, apparently insensible with his head hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath, apparently insensible of the room, discovered him lying on the edge of the bath, apparently insensible with his head hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath, apparently insensible of the room, discovered him lying on the edge of the bath, apparently insensible with his head hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath, apparently insensible with his head hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath, apparently insensible of the room, discovered him lying on the edge of the bath, apparently insensible with his head hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath, apparently insensible with his head hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath, apparently insensible of the bath hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immediately given, and several septiments of the bath hanging in the water and his feet on the floor. An alarm was immed at the meeting called to hear Colfax and Stuart, in which three or four persons were killed, &c., dc. We since learn that no one was killed.—

The United States has just adjourned, after their Legislature or their Legis The following tribute from a neutral passed, which has been placed in the search of the benefit of his family, and the sum of $32,000 raised, which has been placed in the hands of trustees for investment. In addition to this it is stated that the King family still retain a thing interest in the publication, which yields them about $1000 amounth profit. Mrs. King has also been presented with a house valued at three thouse and dollars.

The following tribute from a neutral passed, dec. We since learn that no one was killed,—be. We some shorts of the Democrative and trustees for their intelligence to suppose correspond with your own, between those who were present. Some shorts were alightly wounded, but none dangerously. The "fines" grew out of the fact that agang of finishen from the railrond went to the meeting, and the exertions of the Democratic party is the stated that the King family still retain a thing which is stated that the King family still retain a thing which is stated that the King family still retain a thing which is stated that the King family still retain a still retain Hitherto opposed by a powerful and natural anhave not forgotten their recent Know Nothing togonism embodying an elevated and dignified oaths, are determined to drive the Irish off the togonism embodying an elevated and dignified oaths, are determined to drive the Irish off the men who saw him at his office about 5 o'clock know, but I cannot avoid the conviction that

> The prospects for the Democracy in Hamilton County, Ohio, are of the most flat

The Peter Funks in Council.

The most laughable farce that has yet been We publish, to-day, a communication ad- MONT party intend to carry the coming elec- attempted, on the part of the Abolition leadressed to the Governor of Indiana by the tion, if possible, by stratagem, deception and ers, is the movement which they have got up State officers of Michigan, signed in their fraud. The Secret Circular, which we pub- to advertise themselves to the world as "FREofficial capacity, of a most extraordinary lished yesterday, unveils a part of their sys- MONT Democrats," and constitute themselves

Only think of such men as Dr. Ellis, Lu-CIAN BARBOUR, H. E. TALBOTT, O. WILLIAMS. A. D. Rose, &c., &c., styling themselves "Democrats." And then, too, as if they had not yet given the climax to their unblushing impudence, they must issue a formal address its face, was printed at the office of CAMERON to the "Democrats of Indiana," setting forth the reasons for their support of FREMONT and DAYTON, and their opposition to BUCHANAN & Breckinginge. When it is remembered that these political Peter Funks were in open be upheld, or whether they are to be abanthought of as candidates for the Presidency whether the majority of the people of Kan-long before the Cincinnati or the Philadelof their giving the why and the wherefore of braska Act ? other, becomes most supremely ridiculous.

The anxiety of these old renegades to ets " ought to be printed on paper of the same ap- place themselves before the public under the to the Union. tacit confession of the strong hold which and that it is the duty of the States "to inaffections of the people. The Democracy, resting the progress of the evil. however, will not return the compliment by and such let them remain.

THE RITCHIE FAMILY-GBOSS FRAUD AND from the direction to make their tickets look Deception Somewhere.—It is said that We should be happy to hear your views, like the Old Liners, if any person or per- "there is but one step from the sublime to and also those of other eminent citizens of sons should watch the polls and see what ridiculous." A perfect exemplification of your State. We have the honor to be &c., number of each kind of tickets was voted, if the truth of the adage, was given in the Jourof different paper or color, they could tell | nal of yesterday, in its dolorous tale about how the vote would stand when counted out the hardships and sufferings of the poor and no change of tickets dare be made even RITCHIE family, whom the editor saw at the if judges or others were corrupt enough to Union Depot, on Thursday. Over the in- To his Excellency, Governor WRIGHT, Indo the deed; but if the texts are all alike, cidents that occurred on that occasion, the dianapolis, Indiana. in paper and color, then it would be more Journal attempted to be more than usually pathetic. It got up a regular salty time of it.

ing on the subject, none but the thoroughly Kansas emigrants. They had driven them nfamy and disgrace.

suspicion that he would vote for FILLMORE, chanan men," or any other men. He had by the FREMONT men, in a body. The prin- ed with in any form. His family were all cipal candidates on the ticket, from Morton taken sick-he did not like the countryto the last on the list, can openly avow a and was anxious to get back to "Old Kenpreference for FREMONT, without the slight- tucky." Such were the simple facts, as reest danger of disaffection in the FILLMORE lated by RITCHIE himself, in the presence ranks. They can make the FILLMORE men whose veracity is not to be questioned have axes to grind; and then reward them think of the disgraceful course which the

Inasmuch as there is no probability of hold-understands as well as the editor If they illegally swear in their votes, prose- horrible and marvellous. Of this class was population is the usual average in the Free morally, and politically, for the office to would require but a short while in the pres-

Journal of this city spread itself like the sails twenty-five thousand by the Black Republi- age, but had acquired a national reputation the Union, and render its reformation impos- twenty-five thousand by the Black Republi- age, but had acquired a national reputation the Union, and render its reformation impos- twenty-five thousand by the Black Republi- age, but had acquired a national reputation the Union, and render its reformation impos- twenty-five thousand by the Black Republi- age, but had acquired a national reputation the Union, and render its reformation impos- twenty-five thousand by the Black Republi- age, but had acquired a national reputation in the Union and render its reformation impos- twenty-five thousand by the Black Republi- age, but had acquired a national reputation in the Union and render its reformation impos- twenty-five thousand by the Black Republi- age, but had acquired a national reputation in the Union and render its reformation impos- twenty-five thousand by the Black Republi- age, but had acquired a national reputation in the Union and render its reformation in the Union and re of a seventy-four gun ship, before the popular breeze, and started out on its usual voyage to catch gulls and Flats. The editor age to catch gulls and Flats are grave grounds for suspicion that the extraordinary vote for Hamlin of the two age to catch gulls and Flats. The editor age to catch gulls and Flats are grave grounds for suspicion of the "Free States" to provide a fund for the countributed the extraordinary vote for Hamlin of the two age to catch gulls and Flats are grave grounds for suspicion of the "Free States" to provide a fund for the countributed the extraordinary vote for Hamlin of the two age to catch gulls and Flats are grave grounds for suspicion of the "Free States" to provide a fund for the countributed the catcher age to catch gulls and Flats are grave grounds for suspicion of the "Free States" to provide a fund for the countributed the catcher age to catcher age t age to catch gulls and FLATs. The editor opened the vast store house of his sympathy opened the vast store house of his death Corporation Counsel of the time of his death Corporation Counsel of the devotion to the Union.

Executive of a State, whose citizens have always been distinguished for their patriotic provision in the Constitution of a State which differences of opinion should be tolerable always been distinguished for their patriotic which would warrant its Legislature in expression to the Union. for the wounded, the mained and the killed, and shed a perfect deluge of tears over the beaten, Fremont would be virtually withand shed a perfect deluge of tears over the wholesale massacre of the "friends of free-wholesale massacre of the "friends of free-drawn from the Presidential canvass; hence down." The bloody tale was rendered down. dom." The bloody tale was rendered doub- they spared no efforts for success, and, we his decease President of the Union Demoly horrifying by the fact that Hon. WM. Z. believe, resorted to great frauds to obtain it. cratic Republican Committee, and Sachem of STUART, the Democratic candidate for Congress, was at the bottom of the whole affair, of 1840 in this county, when the Democratic area syou state the bottom of the whole affair, of 1840 in this county, when the Democratic candidate for the Constitution of the States, and the rights of the Constitution of the States, and the rights of the Constitution of the States, and if there the Constitution of the States, and if there can also that the Constitution of the States, and if there the Constitution of the States, and the rights of the Constitution of the States, and the rights of the Constitution of the States, and the rights of the Constitution of the States, and if there are the Constitution of the States, and if there are the Constitution of the States, and if there are the Constitution of the States, and the rights of the Constituti

The Bee pledges Daviess for one hundred and fifty Democratic majority, in October and November.

In 1854, it gave the opposition over two large and the least of the large and l cation addressed to Governor Wright by the State Officers of Michigan on the Kansas Troubles, with Governor Wright's Reply.

DETROIT, June 4, 1856. ent state of things in Kansas Territory, and several of the Slaveholding States, as connected with the further extension of Slaveoned for the gratification of a comparativeof the rights of self-government, guarantied to them in explicit terms by the Kansas Ne-

their support of the one and opposition to the We beg to say that in our estimation these questions far transcend in importance all party interest, that they are vital to the liberty secured to us by the Constitution, and name and prestige of the party which they We think a case has arisen which plainly have been so long opposing and abusing, is a Madison in the Virginia resolutions of 1798, that party and its principles have upon the terpose (of course in a lawful way) for ar-emigration from the Free States to Kansas. supported in some measure by the Free form or character whatever. When they States, with a view to act decisively upon swung loose from their party moorings, years the elections next fall, is the most effectual ago, they voluntarily gave up all claims to and perhaps the only means of disappointng the efforts of the abbettors of the fraud nd violence, of which we have spoken .friends, and thenceforward were to be treat- Should this plan receive the sanction and ed as enemies and traitors. Such they were the promise of co-operation on the part of the other north-western States, we shall not hesitate, to recommend to the Governor of this State, to convoke the Legislature with a view J. M. HOWARD, Att'y General, JOHN M'KINNEY, Sec'y of State, WHITNEY JONES, Auditor Gen'!.. S. M. Holmes, State Treasurer, S. B. TREADWELL, Com. St. Land Office.

Indianapolis, Sept. 27, 1856. Legislature of Wisconsin has been assembled who have watched the progress of the party formation, that it does not possess this pow- adopting the course you suggest. There are struggle, into which the country has been er, it will be quite time enough for the no people more obedient to law than they plunged. A struggle which is sufficiently States to act, when the fact is properly an-characterized, by angry feeling, without any nounced to them and their assistance re-nor countenance me in doing anything in rein Kansas, "and some of the slaveholding ernment, and which cannot, in my judgment, be interfered with, by the authorities of the Attorney, for the Fifth Judicial Circuit, and States, without usurpation, on the part of the of operations, as Governor of one of the "free 5,000 the citizens of Johnson County, the name of Federal authority would immediately ensue, if not inevitably, to blood shed and revoluand thunder" journals of the opposition, was all drawn out; now, it is one hundred the counties of Marion, Hancock, Mamilton, about by a collision between the government then are they endowed with a spirit of pa- and twenty thousand an increase of twenty- Hendricks, Tipton, Madison and Johnson, of the United States, and those of the States, strous increase for a State which is nearly stationary in population. Again, as the total Johnson County, and if it meets their approsas outrages" that are the most vile and wick- population is but five hundred and fifty bation, we desire that the name of Mr. New termine whether the Southern States had ed fabaications that it is possible for human thousand, the proportion of votes in Maine be printed on the general ticket of each of violated the Constitution and laws, and ingenuity to conceive, but a "home scene" is is one to four and a half of that number, if said counties as a candidate for the office should feel themselves called upon to avenge ent excited state of the public mind, to bring would be civil war in its worst and most ruinous form. It would necessarily destroy one, if no other, that it is utterly absurd. Mr. Shepard was but thirty-six years of the Union, and render its reformation imposhave seen whether any remedy would be ar- And certainly you need not

You will read ly perceive that your letter, hostile array upon the plains of Kansas and written while Congress was in session, and sattle by the sword a contest about political Siz : - It has occurred to us that the pres- more than two months before its adjournment, might possibly subject you, in some tled by the people of Kansas themselves, but minds, to the imputation of an extraordina- for the interference of intermeddling politiry haste, in desiring, as officers of the State cians, within the States, who seem to care less of Michigan, to interfere with things belong- about the peace, quiet and welfare of the counry, into that, and other Territories, and as ing to the General Government and in no try, if not the existence of the Union, than vincing a gross disregard of the Constitution way connected with the duties of the offices they do about the result of a Presidentia and the laws of the United States, and the you are new filling. It is quite time enough, election. Had this class of our citizens been rights of American citizens under the same, in my estimation, for the officers of the States, content to let Kansas alone, had they permitto undertake this supervision, when the Gov- ted the people there, to settle their own inernment of the United States shall have stitutions in their own way, there would have State Legislature. We think the question shown itself incompetent to a performance of been but little more, if any difficulty amongst is now fairly and emphatically presented to its duties and obligations. At present I am them, than there has been among the other the Free States, whether these rights are to constrained to think that the House of Rap- Territories of the United States. But the act resentatives did not consider the state of for the organization of the Territory had things in Kansas, in the condition you have scarcely passed-the ink with which the supposed; or certainly, some proposition, President wrote his approval of it, was scarce-would have been introduced and passed, for ly dry, before a society of Congressional polithe restoration of quiet. Unless, indeed, iticians was formed with a view to control those who were in the majority, and controll- the elections there, and make them subservied its action, looked to the remedy you have ent to their party purposes. The example suggested as the most available means of af- thus set was immediately followed in other fecting the result of the Presidential election. sections of the country, and the State of Mass-In any view of it, I am constrained, from a achusetts, one of the most distant of all the sense of duty to the Federal Government of States from Kansas, provided by law for the the State of Indians, and the other States of organization of a company of her citizens, Union, to decline a compliance with your with a large capital, to do what is now prosuggestions, and to say that I see in them posed by you, that is "to act decisively upon nothing but such consequences as every pat- the elections there." In my judgment, these riot in the county would be compelled to de- organizations are the foundation of all the plore. I am charged by the Constitution with difficulties in Kansas. They constitute the the duty of convening the Legislature, when- inauguration of a policy in the North, which ever, in my opinion, the exigency of public it was quite natural that the South should affairs in this State shall require it. But I am consider as aggressive. It was in proof before not aware that there has been conferred up- the investigating committee of Congress, that on me, or that it was intended to confer upon the State of Missouri did so consider it, beme, the power to do so, in view of any exigency that may arise in the affairs of the Gen- most likely to be carried to Kansas by these eral Government, or those of any of the other means, were those who, after their arrival there States or Territories. Whatever the Legis- would both encourage the escape of their lature, while in session, might suppose to be slaves, and resist their recapture and return its duty, on these subjects, they are not such under the requirements of the Constitumatters as justify me in convening them at a tion the fugitive Slave Law, and thus by time not fixed by law. You give it as your opinion that "the rious injury upon them. question is now fairly and emphatically pre- events have tended to confirm these impressented to the FREE STATES, whether these authority to interfere in the affairs of Kan- Missouri. sas—both for the purpose of seeing that So that, although it has been conceded slavery is not extended, and to protect the people of Kansas from "fraud and violence." ment, if they were to interfere, it would be an act of revolution against the General State, while Massachusetts was an old one-GENTLEMEN: -Your communication of act of revolution would be war, and such a unequal, because it lead to the formation of resolutions of 1798, to which you appeal in ern mind, and to enlist in its to consider the subjects to which you refer. support of your views, if they justify the meas-The Journal of this morning publishes inked out as perfect ogres who had feasted The matter has been gravely suggested in ures you suggest. Those resolutions were a doubtlessly designed by this party, and certhis Circular because the Sentinel of yester- their blood thirsty appetites upon the heart- other Northern States; and I have been called protest against the unconstitutional legisla- tainly, as might have been expected, this led each signed this letter, in your official char- that was ever claimed for them, by those who the South, which have kept pace with those initiated abolitionists would have ever laid from Kansas, after plundering them of their acter, I am of course to suppose that you were the most anxious to pervert their meanup arms against the traitor Lane. Well, as entitled to higher consideration, than if that was a touching story, most touchingly you were acting merely upon your individual that was a touching story, most touchingly you were acting merely upon your individual that was a touching story, most touchingly you were acting merely upon your individual that was a touching story, most touchingly you were acting merely upon your individual to higher consideration, than if that was a touching story, most touchingly ual responsibility. You will pardon me, told—but unfortunately for the purposes of the Tribune to give the name of the canditation and laws of the United the Journal, it was a most monstrous FALSE- light, since I am not informed that the sub- States have been violated, and that "fraud fort to increase, rather than diminish the difficulty."

The New Albany Ledger calls upon that was a touching story, most touchingly ual responsibility. You will pardon me, however, for not regarding them in that that the Constitution and laws of the United light, since I am not informed that the sub- States have been violated, and that "fraud fort to increase, rather than diminish the difficulty in the course of those united that was a touching story, most touchingly ual responsibility. You will pardon me, however, for not regarding them in that that the Constitution and laws of the United light, since I am not informed that the sub- States have been violated, and that "fraud fort to increase, rather than diminish the diffiport Fillmore for the Presidency. The Indicated the Governor Wright upon letter written by Governor Wright upon bune very curtly refuses to comply with the ought to stamp the editor with everlasting of the United States, as the only means am unwilling to countenance the employment of the were yet alive, would doubtless wonthe duties of the positions you respectively Kansas of their just rights under them. The trate in Kansas a considerable portion of the of a public office for any other purposes, der how it could be possible for any ingenuity means will be speedily effectual, I do not The poor man, RITCHIE, was interrogated whether of a party or individual character, so to torture their meaning as to make them doubt, if a Presidential election were not so THAN THOSE WHICH BELONG TO IT; and justify the STATES in interfering in matters near at hand, and if the party with which hence, shall be obliged to consider your let- of this sort. It certainly has occurred to you, you are acting did not consider the agitation ter as wholly unofficial; but yet, at the same that the Federal Government has power of slavery as its greatest source of st time, entitled to the consideration and re- enough to protect its own Constitution and I am very sure that the people of Indiana from the manufactured statement of the Jour- spect, which is justly your due, as individ- laws, and consequently to protect the citi- are anxious that they should prove effectual Your speak altogether in the tone, if not in them. If it shall turn out, contrary to the fore I should act in disobedience to what the language of the party press, and the senti- design of those who framed the Constitution, consider their wishes, if I could be induced ments you utter are quite familiar to those and the universal public judgment since its to place any impediment in the way, by unwarrantable employment of the influence quired. Until then it occurs to me that they sistance to the legitimate authority of the official position in the several States, have quite enough to do, in attending to their United States. Your policy could not be whether North or South. Yet the manner own domestic affairs, in developing their own carried out without such resistance, and therein which you have treated the subjects to resources, and in cultivating the spirit of true fore you will not be surprised either at the which you refer, and the alarming proposi- patriotism, and that just subordination to sentiments I have expressed, or the conclutions you suggest, will justify me in replying law, which is not only the foundation of their sions to which I have come. I am sure that I do not propose to discuss with you the rance of Union and harmony between them. the people of this State, and that whatever You give it as your opinion, "that a strong view you may take of them, my conclusi-"a gross disregard of the constitution and laws of the United States, and the rights of to Kansas supported in some measure by the The occasion will justify me in saying, American citizens," upon the part of persons free States, with a view to act decisively upon that unless something shall occur to arrest the elections next full-is the most effectual, the course of the sectional party with which and perhaps the only means of disappointing tories." These are matters which properly belong to the authorities of the Federal Govthe extension of slavery" and you ask my States." I should subject myself to the Representatives, elected under a pledge to do er and right of such interference, it is easy to charge of an utter insensibility to all the obsee that a conflict between them, and the ligations belonging to my position, if I could be induced to co-operate in any such plan. without passing a single measure of relief .-I presume it is the first time it was ever Under every obligation, express and implied seriously proposed that the Legislature of any State should be convened for the purpose tional laws passed by the Kansas Legislature, of inducing its citizens to emigrate beyond its it has failed to do it. It has failed even to borders, at the expense of the people of the State, to be paid out of the public Treasury ! And if this proposition was not now made by fatal to the public happiness and peace. If gentlemen who fill five of the most importained by anybody. But I have no evidence people of this State. If so, they are evidently disposed to introduce a new policy into the Legislature of the State, which, so such a policy I am unwilling to give my assent for many reasons, and for one controlling

"gross disregard of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the rights of on the occasion of his sudden death.

On the little had the feath of t violated. But I have no information before And our own elections furnish us with down to our children the richest and the best me officially in reference to these things,- quite enough of excitement, without export- heritage we can leave them. I have the certainly none such as could justify me in ing voters "to act decisively upon the elecmen who saw him at his office about 5 o'clock know, but I cannot avoid the conviction that cisively upon the elections" there. And yet, that evening tell us that they perceived no the information furnished by it, was quite you now call upon the Free States in their him, and who can well attest his identity. as extensive as any which you may have sovereign capacity as States, to initiate the destated that he had no difficulty whatever, obtained by private means. Yet either the new and startling policy of actually pro-A friend informs us that Lancaste House of Representatives did not consider viding, by legislation, for the same thing. - Kansas martyrs are resurrected, many of olied by Congress-as the matters referred when this state of things shall be brought , in your letter, are exclusively of a federal about, its inevitable result must be, that the free and slave States will meet together in principles, which could easily have been setrights are to be upheld," &c. I understand who have gone to Kansas through these inyou of course, to mean, that the "Free States" strumentalities, have been guilty of the are called upon to employ their legislative most offensive acts towards the citizens of wrongs, yet all candid men must be forced I differ with you, both as to the powers and to admit that their incipient steps were mostduties of the "Free States." In my judg- ly of a defensive character. The struggle was an unequal one. Missouri was a young Government, and of unwarrantable interfer-ence with matters in no way pertaining to enforcing any policy she might choose to their own domestic government. Such an adopt. And as it advanced, it became more zens of its territories in all their rights under at once, that peace may be restored, and there own prosperity, but the most reliable assu- they are the sentiments of a large majority of something in behalf of Kansas, it has peract upon a bill passed by the Senate, dec CAPITAL. Instead of consummating a single measure they had promised, those who composed this majoity chose rather to make an attempt to arrest the course of the Govern-

when the conservative judgment of the